Bloomington Normal Modern Quilt Guild is a registered non-profit 501(c)3 organization. We operate under the umbrella of the national Modern Quilt Guild. Our mission is to develop and encourage the art of modern quilting. We offer educational opportunities through classes, workshops, lectures, and sharing of information. BNMQG always seeks to support and provide opportunity for community outreach through the use of modern quilting skills. To achieve our goals, we are dependent upon the contributions made by our members in the form of annual dues, and on the donations received through our fundraising efforts.

Our membership, the visitors to our website, and the subscribers to our newsletter are an audience that are specifically interested in quilting, sewing, and crafts. We are now offering several opportunities for advertisers and sponsors who want to reach our audience and support the work of our guild.
